Effective: May 4, 2017

(A) Refund/release and forfeiture policy. A contract for housing accommodations or food services at the university of Akron upon being breached by the student or otherwise terminated by the university of Akron is subject to the following refund provisions.

(1) Housing refunds.

(a) A full refund of any prepaid fees including the one hundred fifty dollar housing accommodations prepayment and release of other financial liability therefore under the following circumstances:

(i) Graduation of the student from the university of Akron.

(ii) Academic dismissal of the student from the university of Akron.

(iii) Non-attendance or complete withdrawal by the student from the university of Akron prior to the start of the contract term (except for one hundred fifty dollars housing accommodations prepayment which shall be forfeited.) The one hundred fifty dollar housing accommodations prepayment will be refunded for new entering, transfer and graduate students when notification of intent to break the housing contract is received prior to the fifteenth of May for the following fall semester and the fifteenth day of October for housing contracts initiated for spring semester.

(iv) Mandatory or recommended participation in academic programs of the university of Akron requiring the student to commute regularly beyond the Akron metropolitan area (i.e., student teaching or co-op assignments). Documentation from the university department affiliated with the program is required at the time of cancellation.

(b) Once occupancy has been established (i.e. acceptance of room keys and signing occupancy document) and the student remains enrolled at the university of Akron, the student must petition for contract release and only those students who are able to demonstrate extenuating circumstances will be released from their housing or dining contract.

(c) Students who are released from the housing contract, either by petition or non-enrollment for the then current term, will be subject to a refund schedule based on a percentage refund from the first day of class through the twenty-eighth calendar day. In addition, if a student is granted release from their housing contract after taking occupancy during the fall term or prior to the twenty-eighth calendar day of the spring term, a cancellation fee of two hundred dollars will apply for housing.

(i) Refund policy for housing charges:

(a) First day of class through day seven equals ninety per cent refund;

(b) Day eight through day fourteen equals eighty per cent refund;

(c) Day fifteen through day twenty-one equals sixty per cent refund;

(d) Day twenty-two through day twenty-eight equals forty per cent refund; and

(e) Day twenty-nine or after equals zero per cent refund.

(d) The housing refund date will be established based on the date the student officially surrenders use of university housing and returns all appropriate keys (room and apartment keys) to university staff and satisfies university mandated housing separation requirements and procedures.

(2) Dining refunds will be based upon usage from the first day of class through the twenty-eighth calendar day of the semester. If the student cancels their dining plan during the fall or spring term prior to the twenty-eighth calendar day a student will be refunded the cost of the meal plan less any usage to date. After the twenty-eighth calendar day no refunds will be issued for dining.

(3) A student shall remain responsible for the full cost of the then-current residence hall contract term and dining plan usage if the university, in its sole discretion, terminates the contract:

(a) For reasons related to the orderly operation of the residence halls, or for reasons relating to the health, physical, or emotional safety and well-being of the persons or property of students, faculty, staff, or university property.

(b) If the student is dismissed or suspended from the university of Akron for disciplinary reasons in accordance with law or the rules and regulations of the board of trustees; or, if the student is suspended or placed on terms of disciplinary probation in accordance with law or the rules and regulations of the board of trustees, whereby such terms of suspension or probation prohibit the student from residing in university housing accommodations.

(4) Notice requirements. All notices of intent to break the housing or dining contract must be submitted in writing to the department of residence life and housing or dining services, respectively. If the student is under the age of eighteen years, the written notification of termination must be co-signed by the student's parent or legal guardian.
