

Ohio Administrative Code

Rule 3361:50-43-01 Libraries: identification and circulation cardholder policy.

Effective: June 17, 1998

A valid university of Cincinnati photoidentification card is the identification required when using the library. Patrons may have access to the university of Cincinnati libraries' collections and services based on published library policy as established by each library jurisdiction and the appropriate provost. Departmental library hours vary and are posted at each location.
