

Ohio Administrative Code Rule 3379-7-06 Consultants to the council.

Effective: April 15, 2014

The council from time to time may appoint one or more consultants for the purpose of advising the council on particular matters pertaining to its functions. Each consultant shall be formally designated as such and shall serve for such period as the council shall designate.
