

Ohio Administrative Code

Rule 3701:1-40-26 Conditions of specific licenses of broad scope.

Effective: October 4, 2010

(A) Unless specifically authorized pursuant to other rules of this chapter, persons licensed under rules 3701:1-40-22 to 3701:1-40-25 of the Administrative Code shall not:

- (1) Conduct tracer studies in the environment involving direct release of radioactive material;
- (2) Receive, acquire, own, possess, use, transfer, or import devices containing three thousand seven hundred terabecquerels (one hundred thousand curies) or more of radioactive material in sealed sources used for irradiation of materials;
- (3) Conduct activities for which a specific license issued by the director under this chapter or Chapter 3701:1-46, 3701:1-48, or 3701:1-58 of the Administrative Code is required; or
- (4) Add or cause the addition of radioactive material to any food, beverage, cosmetic, drug, or other product designed for ingestion or inhalation by, or application to, a human being.

(B) Each type A specific license of broad scope issued under this chapter and rule 3701:1-38-02 of the Administrative Code shall be subject to the condition that radioactive material possessed under the license may only be used by, or under the direct supervision of, individuals approved by the licensee's radiation safety committee.

(C) Each type B specific license of broad scope issued under this chapter and rule 3701:1-38-02 of the Administrative Code shall be subject to the condition that radioactive material possessed under the license may only be used by, or under the direct supervision of, individuals approved by the licensee's radiation safety officer.

(D) Each type C specific license of broad scope issued under this chapter and rule 3701:1-38-02 of the Administrative Code shall be subject to the condition that radioactive material possessed under the license may only be used by, or under the direct supervision of, individuals who satisfy the
