

Ohio Administrative Code Rule 3745-5-02 Purpose and applicability.

Effective: May 11, 2018

(A) The purpose of this chapter is to establish a voluntary statewide water quality trading program that does all of the following:

- (1) Facilitates watershed-based approaches to improving water quality.
- (2) Improves water quality and minimizes the costs of achieving and maintaining water quality standards.
- (3) Provides economic incentives for voluntary pollutant reductions from point sources and nonpoint sources.
- (4) Achieves additional environmental benefits beyond pollutant reductions.

(B) This chapter applies to any person that participates in water quality trading activities.

(C) The director may consider whether water quality trading activities have met the purpose of this chapter when determining if the rules should continue without change, be amended or be rescinded.

[Comment: Pursuant to section 106.03 of the Revised Code, every five years state agencies are required to review each of their rules to determine if the rules should continue without change, be amended or be rescinded. In making this review, the director must consider the continued need for the rule, the nature of any complaints or comments received, and any relevant factors that may have changed in the subject matter affected by the rule. The above information is found in the joint committee on agency rule review procedures manual available at <http://www.jcarr.state.oh.us>.]

(D) Incorporation by reference.

[Comment: Incorporation by reference. This chapter includes references to certain acts and regulations in which the text of the specified act or regulation is not included. Those statutes and regulations are hereby incorporated by reference into this chapter and made a part of this chapter as if fully rewritten therein. For statutes and regulations subject to change, only the specific version specified in the rule are incorporated. Except for subsequent annual publication of existing (unmodified) Code of Federal Regulation compilations, any amendment or revision to a referenced document is not incorporated unless and until this rule has been amended to specify the new dates.]
