

Ohio Administrative Code Rule 3750-60-94 Adverse health effects.

Effective: June 30, 1993

The commission shall identify the adverse health effects associated with each of the chemicals claimed as trade secret and shall make this information available to the public. The material safety data sheets submitted to the commission may be used to this purpose.
