

Ohio Administrative Code Rule 3769-14-36 May disqualify horse.

Effective: January 1, 1985

The judges may require the owner and/or trainer of a horse to prove the horse is qualified in every way to participate in a race. They may also require proof the horse was not nominated by or is not the property, wholly or in part, of a disqualified person. If not satisfied with such proof the judges may disqualify the horse.
