

Ohio Administrative Code Rule 3769-2-20 Written testimony.

Effective: March 21, 2024

The commission may request any person making application for the first time to secure written testimony from two reputable persons that they are personally known to the applicant, and that the applicant is of good reputation and is familiar with the duties of the position they seek.
