

Ohio Administrative Code Rule 3769-4-36 Stewards' list.

Effective: January 1, 1985

The stewards may at any time order an examination of any horse entered in a race or which has run in a race. They may bar the further entry of any horse, and such barred horses shall be placed on a list designated as the stewards' list and shall not be eligible to be entered until they are removed by the stewards from the list. The stewards' list shall be posted in the racing secretary's office with the names of horses barred by the stewards and the date barred.
