

Ohio Administrative Code Rule 3769-4-43 Must be disinterested.

Effective: January 1, 1985

No one interested in the result of a race at any commercial meeting, either because of ownership of any horse entered, or because of ownership of an entered horse's sire or dam, or because of wagers or otherwise, shall act as steward, judge, starter or official therein. For any violation of this rule, the offending person or persons may be penalized under the provisions of rule 3769-4-99 of the Administrative Code.
