

Ohio Administrative Code Rule 3769-5-23 Proof of ownership.

Effective: January 1, 1985

The stewards may call upon any person making entry to prove the extent of his interest in the horse or its winnings or to give proof that the horse entered is not the property, wholly or in part, of any person who is disqualified. If unsatisfied with the proof tendered, they may declare the horse out of the race.
