

Ohio Administrative Code Rule 3769-6-22 Disputed ownership.

Effective: January 1, 1985

Any person who makes a false ownership claim to a horse may be fined and/or suspended or they may be suspended and referred to the commission for any disciplinary action the commission deems advisable.
