

Ohio Administrative Code

Rule 3769-6-46 Determining foul riding; stewards.

Effective: January 1, 1985

Every jockey shall be responsible for making their best effort to control and guide their mount in such a way as not to cause a foul. The stewards shall take cognizance of riding which results in a foul, irrespective of whether an objection is lodged, and if in the opinion of the stewards a foul is committed as a result of a jockey not making their best effort to control and guide their mount to avoid a foul, whether intentionally or through carelessness or incompetence, such jockey or horse may be penalized at the discretion of the stewards.
