

Ohio Administrative Code Rule 3769-6-48 Shall be ridden out.

Effective: January 1, 1985

---

Every horse shall be ridden out unless injured. Any jockey who, without adequate cause, shall rein in before crossing the finish line or who shall fail to use his/her utmost exertion to obtain a winning performance from the horse ridden by him/her may be suspended, ruled off, or may be subject to such other penalty as the stewards or commission may impose.

---