

Ohio Administrative Code

Rule 3769-7-09 Must give cause for discharge.

Effective: January 1, 1985

When an owner or trainer shall discharge a jockey, groom or attendant, such owner or trainer shall, upon demand in writing, give such jockey, groom or attendant a written statement setting forth the cause and reason for the discharge and shall forthwith pay them to date for service theretofore rendered. On refusing to do so, they may be fined and/or suspended.
