

Ohio Administrative Code

Rule 3770:1-12-28 Game number twenty-eight.

Effective: September 26, 1998

(A) Title and term. Ohio lottery commission game number twenty-eight, "Lucky for Life," shall be conducted at such times and for such periods as the commission may determine. For the purpose of this rule, "sales cycle" shall mean any such period, including reprints, beginning on the date when ticket sales are commenced and continuing through the date established by the director as the date on which agents are to make their final settlement with respect to ticket allocated to them during the period in game number twenty-eight.

(B) General design.

(1) Game number twenty-eight is a number match game generally known as an "instant lottery."

(2) As used in this rule, "prize award" shall mean one of the following monetary amounts which is the total of all winning prize values appearing on the ticket: five dollars, ten dollars, twenty dollars, twenty-five dollars, thirty-five dollars, fifty dollars, seventy-five dollars, one hundred dollars, five hundred dollars, one thousand dollars, five thousand dollars, ten thousand dollars, one hundred thousand dollars and seven hundred thousand dollars (a minimum "life" prize amount paid out at one thousand dollars a week for life or fifty-two thousand dollars a year). Each ticket in game number twenty-eight shall be imprinted in such a way that prize awards from the set listed above may be won.

(3) Holders of valid tickets will remove the covering of the entire play area. If the player matches any one or more of "your numbers" to any of the ten "Lucky for Life numbers," the player wins the prize shown below the matched number(s). If the holder reveals a "horseshoe" symbol, the player wins its prize automatically. Additionally, if the holder reveals a "life" symbol, the player wins one thousand dollars a week for life (fifty-two thousand dollars a year). There are ten chances to win on each ticket.

(C) Price of tickets. The price of a ticket issued by the commission in game number twenty-eight

- (t) Two thousand three hundred twenty-six tickets matching for twenty-five dollars once to win twenty-five dollars;
- (u) One thousand two hundred fifty tickets matching for five dollars three times and one dollar five times to win twenty dollars;
- (v) Two thousand five hundred tickets matching for five dollars four times to win twenty dollars;

All regular prize awards shall be deemed announced no later than the last day on the sales cycle of game number twenty-eight in which the ticket was sold.

(G) Special claim, entry, receipt and validation procedures. The director shall establish special claim, entry, receipt and validation procedures, including procedures for validation by agents of tickets winning prizes which are to be paid by agents in accordance with commission rules. Prize awards shall be claimed within the time limits set forth by commission rules.

(H) Validity of tickets.

(1) A mechanical error in printing prize awards, symbols, words or other numbers on a ticket shall not automatically invalidate that ticket. To the extent feasible, the director shall establish procedures by which the holder of any ticket on which information is incorrectly printed due to mechanical malfunction may be advised of correct information for the ticket. If it is not technically feasible to recover the information from a mechanically misprinted ticket, the director may declare the ticket void and the holder shall be entitled to a return of the ticket price or a replacement ticket of comparable price.
