

Ohio Administrative Code

Rule 3772-4-01 Instructions for the casino operator, management company, and holding company license application.

Effective: October 26, 2024

The following instructions apply to the application for a license as a casino operator, management company, or holding company:

- (A) Applicants for a license are seeking a privilege.
- (B) The burden of proving qualifications to receive such a license is at all times borne by the applicant.
- (C) The commission may request additional information not prescribed in the application form.
- (D) The applicant is under a continuing duty to promptly disclose any changes in the information provided in the application and requested materials submitted to the commission. The duty to make such disclosures continues throughout any period of the license that is granted by the commission.
- (E) If additional pages are required in order to answer any question, additional pages may be used and must be attached to the application form. Be sure to indicate the number(s) of the question(s) being answered and initial and date each additional page. Some schedules may require disclosure of information for more than one individual or entity or type of information.
- (F) Failure to answer any question completely or truthfully may result in administrative action, including rejection or denial of the application or revocation of the license.
- (G) An applicant should clearly identify those portions of the application that it deems to be confidential, proprietary commercial information or trade secrets. Applications are open to public inspection to the extent permitted by Ohio's Public Records Act and section 3772.16 of the Revised Code.
- (H) Appendices are to be provided by the applicant. The required appendices are listed on the application checklist.

(I) A license expires three years after the date of licensure. A complete renewal application must be filed not less than one hundred eighty days prior to the expiration of the license.
