

Ohio Administrative Code

Rule 3772-6-02 Gaming-related vendor license application, license period, and license renewal.

Effective: January 3, 2022

(A) An applicant for a gaming-related vendor license must complete and submit the appropriate form(s) required by the commission.

(B) A gaming-related vendor license expires three years after the date of licensure.

(C) A gaming-related vendor may request renewal of the license by completing and submitting, not less than one hundred twenty days before the expiration of the license, the appropriate form(s) required by the commission.

(D) All gaming-related vendors must undergo a complete investigation at least once every three years, as determined by the commission, to verify that each remains in compliance with Chapter 3772. of the Revised Code and the rules adopted thereunder.

(E) The commission may request any other information that would affect the gaming-related vendor's suitability to obtain, hold, and maintain a gaming-related vendor license under Chapter 3772. of the Revised Code or the rules adopted thereunder.

(F) The applicant should clearly identify those portions of the application that it deems to be confidential, proprietary commercial information, trade secrets, or otherwise not subject to public disclosure. Information provided as part of the application and licensing process is open to public inspection to the extent provided by the Ohio Public Records Act and section 3772.16 of the Revised Code.
