

Ohio Administrative Code Rule 3773-2-14 Ten-point must system.

Effective: September 20, 2005

No unauthorized persons are allowed in the dressing rooms other than contestants scheduled for the event and the contestant's manager, trainer, second, and the promoter or the promoter's representative. The promoter shall provide separate dressing rooms for male and female contestants, the referees and for each corner as well as the main event contestants and shall provide security in the dressing room areas.
