

Ohio Administrative Code

Rule 3796:4-1-04 Testing laboratory provisional license award.

Effective: September 8, 2017

(A) A provisional license shall be issued to the qualified applicant receiving at least the minimum required score in each category and the highest total score overall as compared to the other applicants.

(B) If no qualified applicants are found during the process described in rule 3796:4-1-03 of the Administrative Code, a provisional licensee fails to fulfill the conditions in the application, a certificate of operation is revoked, or no license is issued or active for any other reason, the department may, at the discretion of the director, announce another period to submit an application in accordance with rule 3796:4-1-02 of the Administrative Code.

(C) No person shall hold or be granted more than one testing laboratory provisional license or testing laboratory certificate of operation at any time. No person shall hold a financial interest in or be an owner, partner, officer, director, shareholder, member, or other person who may significantly influence or control the activities of more than one testing laboratory. No corporation, partnership, limited liability partnership, limited liability company, or other entity or subsidiary thereof shall hold a financial interest in or be an owner, officer, partner, shareholder, member, or other person who may significantly influence or control the activities of more than one testing laboratory.
