

Ohio Administrative Code

Rule 4101:13-1-05 Motions, applications, and requests.

Effective: September 1, 2000

After the docketing of an appeal, and at any time prior to its final adjudication, any motion, application, or request addressed to the board of building appeals in such proceeding must be submitted in writing. When any such motion, application, or request draws in question any fact not apparent from the original papers, transcript, or record, such motion, application, or request must be accompanied by a memorandum displaying such fact.
