

Ohio Administrative Code Rule 4117-1-15 Determination by the board.

Effective: January 2, 2005

(A) After the proposed order or recommended determination of a board member or an administrative law judge is issued to the parties and their representatives and following expiration of the time period for filing exceptions and responses, the board shall consider the record and issue an appropriate order, a written decision, or directive resolving the issues before the board. The decision, order, or directive of the board shall be served upon the parties or their representative of record.

(B) Board approval of a proposed order or recommended determination does not constitute adoption of the reasoning set forth in that proposed order or recommended determination unless the reasoning is expressly adopted by the board and the findings of fact, analysis and discussion, and conclusions of law are incorporated by reference in the board order or directive.
