

Ohio Administrative Code

Rule 4141-15-06 Determining when an employer's account is chargeable for benefits.

Effective: December 28, 2017

For the purposes of division (A)(2) of section 4141.25 of the RevisedCode, effective for contribution periods beginning January 1, 2002, acontributory employer's account shall be considered "chargeable with benefits"for the nine consecutive calendar quarters immediately following any calendarquarter in which the employer had employment subject to Chapter 4141. of theRevised Code.
