

Ohio Administrative Code

Rule 4141-21-03 Payment during director's reconsideration and review by the review commission.

Effective: July 27, 2018

The filing of an application for reconsideration of a director's determination or an application for review by the unemployment compensation review commission does not stay the employer's obligation to pay contributions, surcharge, interest or forfeiture when due as determined for it by the director.
