

Ohio Administrative Code

Rule 4141-23-03 Social security account numbers.

Effective: March 21, 2022

Each employer shall ascertain the social security account number of each individual to whom the employer provides remuneration. If a worker does not have a social security account number, the employer shall advise the worker of the necessity of procuring such number in the manner prescribed by the social security administration.
