

Ohio Administrative Code Rule 4141-35-03 Exception to benefit charges.

Effective: July 6, 2020

Any exception to benefit charges under division (D) of section 4141.24 of the Revised Code must be in writing and filed with the department within fifteen days after the notice of benefit charges is mailed or issued to the employer.

The exception to charges must be submitted by the employer or a duly authorized representative and shall include the employer's name; the employer's unemployment compensation account number; the issue date of the notice to which exception is being taken; the claimant's name and social security account number; and the reason for the exception and sufficient information to show why such charges are not in accordance with section 4141.24 of the Revised Code.
