

Ohio Administrative Code

Rule 4141-35-07 Unemployment caused by a major disaster.

Effective: July 26, 2020

(A) Any contributory employer filing an application in accordance with the provisions of section 4141.285 of the Revised Code must file such application within one hundred eighty days from the date of the major disaster as declared by the president of the United States. Such application must identify the location of employment affected by the disaster, the extent and duration of unemployment caused by the disaster, and the name and social security account number of each employee that the employer considers to have become unemployed due to such disaster.

(B) In accordance with the provisions of division (D) of section 4141.26 of the Revised Code, an employer may file a request for reconsideration of the director's ruling on an application filed under the provisions of section 4141.285 of the Revised Code and this rule. Such written request must be filed with the director of the department of job and family services or postmarked within thirty days after the director's ruling is mailed to the employer's last known address.
