

Ohio Administrative Code

Rule 4146-23-06 Reopening of proceedings prior to decision.

Effective: December 6, 1999

At any time after hearing and prior to the issuance of a decision, the review commission may, on its motion, or in its discretion upon showing of good cause, reopen the matter for further hearing. All parties who appeared at the former hearing shall be given written notice of the date, hour and place of such further hearing in the same manner as was the case in the former hearing.
