

Ohio Administrative Code

Rule 4717-6-02 Funeral directors' examination and subjects.

Effective: April 10, 2011

(A) The examination for an applicant for a funeral director's license shall consist of two distinct sections designated as a nationally recognized examination for funeral service licensure, and the Ohio laws section. An applicant who has not completed mortuary science college shall take a comprehensive funeral service arts examination.

(B) The Ohio laws section for the examination shall be taken from the following sources:

- (1) Ohio laws governing embalming and funeral directing;
- (2) Ohio laws governing transportation of dead human bodies;
- (3) Ohio health laws, rules and regulations governing preparation and transportation of dead human bodies;
- (4) Ohio laws governing sales tax as related to funeral directing;
- (5) Ohio laws governing funds provided by the bureau of workers' compensation for final disposition of dead human bodies when the cause of death is work-related;
- (6) Federal laws governing burial of veterans;
- (7) Ohio laws governing funeral processions;
- (8) Ohio laws, rules and regulations governing pre-need funeral contracts;
- (9) Federal trade commission funeral rules;
- (10) Occupational, safety, and health administration (OSHA) regulations;

(11) Environmental protection agency (EPA) regulations.

(C) A grade of seventy-five per cent or higher on each of the sections shall be considered a passing grade.

(D) Qualifications for re-examination

Any applicant who has failed an embalmers' examination will be qualified to retake the examination after a waiting period determined by the examining agency and payment of the applicable fee(s).
