

Ohio Administrative Code Rule 4723-24-03 Renewal of doula certificate.

Effective: September 30, 2024

(A) The board shall provide on-line access to a "Certified Doula Renewal Application" to every holder of a current, valid certificate, except when the board is aware that the individual may be ineligible for certificate renewal for any reason, including those reasons set forth in section 4723.092 of the Revised Code. Failure of the certificate holder to receive an application for renewal from the board does not excuse the certificate holder from the requirements of section 4723.89 of the Revised Code and this chapter, except as provided in section 5903.10 of the Revised Code.

(B) To renew a certificate to practice as a certified doula a holder of a current, valid certificate shall meet the continuing education requirements set forth in rule 4723-24-04 of the Administrative Code and submit:

(1) A completed on-line "Certified Doula Renewal Application", and

(2) A renewal fee of thirty-five dollars as authorized by section 4723.89 of the Revised Code.

(C) If a completed renewal application is not submitted on-line on or before March first of each even numbered year, the application shall be considered late and a late fee of fifty dollars shall be imposed in addition to the thirty-five dollar renewal fee.

(D) A certificate holder with a current, valid certificate may place the certificate on inactive status at any time by electronic request.

(E) To reactivate an inactive certificate or reinstate a lapsed certificate the certificate holder must meet the continuing education requirements set forth in rule 4723-24-04 of the Administrative Code and submit:

(1) A completed "Certified Doula Reactivation and Reinstatement Application" including all required documentation; and

(2) A reactivation fee in the amount of thirty-five dollars as authorized by section 4723.89 of the Revised Code.

(F) A certificate holder who has placed a certified doula certificate on inactive status is not required to pay a renewal fee unless the holder seeks to reactivate the certificate. If the certificate holder placed a certificate on inactive status after March second of the year in which the certificate was to be renewed, and notifies the board on or before March thirty-first of the same year of the intent to reactivate, the certificate holder must still pay the late processing fee required by paragraph (C) of this rule.

(G) If a certificate to practice as a certified doula is not renewed by March thirty-first of each even numbered year and the certificate holder has failed by that time to request that the certificate be placed on inactive status, the certificate will lapse.

(H) When a certified doula certificate is inactive or lapsed, the individual shall not represent or imply to the public that he or she is certified by the board as a certified doula.

(I) An individual who continues to represent to the public that he or she is a certified doula during the time that his or her certificate is inactive or lapsed, may be subject to disciplinary action by the board in accordance with rule 4723-24-07 of the Administrative Code.

(J) A doula certificate holder who is a service member or veteran, as defined in rule 4723-2-01 of the Administrative Code, or who is the spouse or surviving spouse of a service member or veteran, may be eligible for a waiver of the late application fee and the reinstatement fee according to rule 4723-2-03 of the Administrative Code.
