

Ohio Administrative Code Rule 4733-3-03 The secretary.

Effective: November 1, 2003

The secretary shall be the overall supervisor of the office of the board and have general charge of all functions of its operation as carried out under the direct supervision of the executive director. The secretary shall sign all certificates and other official documents.
