

Ohio Administrative Code

Rule 4733-9-05 Compliance with examination policies and procedures.

Effective: August 1, 2014

Examinees shall abide by the examination administrators published examination policies and procedures. An examinee who does not fully comply with the examination administrators requirements may, in addition to any action by the board, be subject to dismissal from the remainder of the examination.
