

Ohio Administrative Code

Rule 4747-1-22 Fees.

Effective: August 12, 2019

(A) Pursuant to division (B) of section 4747.04 of the Revised Code the application fee for a hearing aid dealer's license shall be two hundred dollars to be paid at the time the application is filed with the board. The fee for the hearing aid fitter's license shall be two hundred and sixty two dollars. The initial license shall be valid for the biennium in which it is issued.

(B) When an initial, restored, or previously expired license is issued less than one hundred days before December thirty-first of the renewal year, the board shall waive the renewal fee and the license shall be considered to have been issued in the next renewal cycle for purposes of the continuing education requirements of rule 4747-1-11 of the Administrative Code.

(C) Pursuant to division (A) of section 4747.06 of the Revised Code:

(1) The biennial renewal licensing fee shall be one hundred twenty dollars for a holder of a hearing aid dealer's or hearing aid fitter's license.

(2) A license shall be renewed by December thirty-first of every other year. The Board shall notify the licensee of the renewal through the eLicense Ohio license management system.

(D) Pursuant to section 4747.10 of the Revised Code:

(1) The fee for a trainee permit shall be one hundred and fifty dollars.

(2) The fee for a second trainee permit shall be one hundred and five dollars

(E) The board shall provide an electronic license or permit verification website to allow the public, a license holder or permit holder to search for and verify the current authorization status, initial issue date and expiration date of a license or permit. Additionally, the electronic license or permit verification website shall inform the public if any administrative action has been taken against the
