

Ohio Administrative Code

Rule 4757-1-09 Conditional permission to practice.

Effective: December 26, 2023

Non-residents who hold an equivalent license or registration in their home jurisdiction, and whose qualifications, as demonstrated in an application prescribed by the board, meet the standards for licensure under Chapter 4757. of the Revised Code and Chapter 4757. of the Administrative Code may be awarded conditional permission to practice. Nonresidents shall have conditional authorization to practice counseling, social work, or marriage and family therapy for not more than thirty days in a six month period upon board approval, receipt of written authorization granting the nonresident permission to practice, and payment of an application fee.
