

Ohio Administrative Code

Rule 4757-25-05 Temporary marriage and family therapist license.

Effective: July 1, 2016

(A) The temporary license allows the holder to practice as a marriage and family therapist or an independent marriage and family therapist, while awaiting the next board meeting.

(B) A temporary license may be issued only if it is determined that, the applicant qualifies under division (A) of section 4757.30 of the Revised Code for licensure as a marriage and family therapist.

(C) Applicants who wish to obtain a temporary license shall submit a properly completed application, as prescribed by the board.

(D) A temporary license is valid from the date of issuance until the earliest of one of the following:

(1) The date the applicant's license is issued under section 4757.30 of the Revised Code;

(2) One year after the temporary license has been issued;

(3) The date the applicant withdraws from taking the examination;

(4) The date the applicant is notified that the applicant failed the examination.

(E) A temporary license may not be renewed. A new temporary license shall be issued only in the event of documented substantial hardship as determined by the board.
