

Ohio Administrative Code

Rule 4765-22-02 Professional standards of conduct for fire, assistant fire, live fire, and fire safety inspector instructors.

Effective: April 1, 2019

[Comment: For dates and availability of material incorporated by reference in this rule see rule 4765-25-02 of the Administrative Code.]

- (A) An instructor shall not discriminate in the provision of firefighter, fire safety inspector, hazard recognition officer, or instructor training courses on the basis of age, race, color, religion, gender, sexual orientation, or national origin.
- (B) An instructor shall provide instruction in accordance with the curriculum, objectives, and standards as set forth in section 4765.55 of the Revised Code, and Chapters 4765-20 to 4765-25 of the Administrative Code.
- (C) An instructor shall provide instruction in accordance with the policies and procedures established by the chartered program through which the instructor is employed or affiliated.
- (D) An instructor shall not provide instruction in any course that is above the instructor's certificate level.
- (E) An instructor shall not evaluate practical skills examinations unless the instructor has successfully completed the "Practical Skills Evaluator Training Course."
- (F) An instructor shall not be permitted to evaluate practical skills examinations that are above the level of the instructor's firefighter, fire safety inspector, or hazard recognition officer certificate.
- (G) An instructor shall not misrepresent the instructor's professional qualifications or credentials.
- (H) An instructor shall not commit fraud, misrepresentation, or deception in conducting a firefighter, fire safety inspector, hazard recognition officer, or instructor training course.

(I) An instructor shall not commit fraud, misrepresentation, or deception in order to obtain a fire certificate to teach.

(J) An instructor shall accurately document and maintain records of all requirements for renewal of the instructor's certificate to teach in accordance with Chapter 4765-21 of the Administrative Code, as applicable. Upon request, the certificate holder shall provide the division with documentation within the time parameters as set forth by the executive director with advice and counsel of the committee.

(K) A fire instructor, assistant fire instructor, and live fire instructor shall maintain a current firefighter certificate. If an instructor fails to maintain a current firefighter certificate, the instructor is not permitted to instruct in any firefighter courses.

(L) A fire safety inspector instructor shall maintain a current fire safety inspector certificate. If an instructor fails to maintain a current fire safety inspector certificate, the instructor is not permitted to instruct in any fire safety inspector courses.

(M) An instructor is not permitted to instruct in any hazard recognition officer courses unless the instructor holds a fire safety inspector certificate and one of the following:

(1) Fire safety inspector instructor certificate; or

(2) Fire instructor certificate.

(N) A live fire instructor shall maintain a current fire instructor or assistant fire instructor certificate. If an instructor fails to maintain a current fire instructor or assistant fire instructor certificate, the instructor is not permitted to instruct in any live fire training evolutions.

(O) An instructor shall obtain approval from a chartered program prior to teaching any courses under the auspices of the chartered program.

(P) An instructor shall surrender all documentation of course files to the sponsoring chartered program no later than ninety days after the final day of the course.

- (Q) An instructor shall not aid, assist, or help any student gain an unfair advantage on any portions of a firefighter, fire safety inspector, hazard recognition officer, or instructor course or on any examinations.
- (R) An instructor shall not proctor or be present during the state written examinations unless the individual is sitting for the examination as part of the course requirements.
- (S) An instructor shall consistently demonstrate a standard of knowledge and competency that meets or exceeds the minimal level required under the individual's certificate to teach.
- (T) An instructor shall report in writing to the division, as soon as practicable, any suspicion or knowledge of a violation of this chapter or any potential compromise of the examination process.
- (U) In addition to meeting the professional standards of conduct in this rule, an instructor shall also remain in compliance with the standards of conduct for a firefighter, fire safety inspector, or hazard recognition officer certificate as set forth in rule 4765-22-01 of the Administrative Code.
- (V) A person issued a firefighter instructor, assistant fire instructor, live fire instructor, or fire safety inspector instructor certificate who is disciplined for violations of Chapter 4765. of the Revised Code and the rules promulgated thereunder shall report the discipline to any and all fire related employers.
- (W) A person issued a firefighter instructor, assistant fire instructor, live fire instructor, or fire safety inspector instructor certificate shall not commit fraud, misrepresentation, or material deception, or submit false or misleading information in any of the following:
- (1) Applying for or obtaining a firefighter instructor or fire safety inspector instructor certificate;
 - (2) Renewing a firefighter instructor or fire safety inspector instructor certificate;
 - (3) Responding to audits conducted by the division or executive director;

AUTHENTICATED,
OHIO LEGISLATIVE SERVICE
COMMISSION
DOCUMENT #251787

(4) Responding to or complying with any other official request from the division or the executive director.