

Ohio Administrative Code

Rule 4774-1-02 Application for an initial license to practice.

Effective: May 31, 2021

(A) An applicant for an initial license to practice as a radiologist assistant shall file an application in the manner determined by the board, and provide such other facts and materials as the board requires.

(B) No application shall be considered filed, and shall not be reviewed, until the non-refundable application fee of two hundred dollars has been received by the board. No application for an initial license to practice as a radiologist assistant submitted to the board shall be considered complete until the applicant has complied with the requirements of paragraph (A) of rule 4731-4-02 of the Administrative Code and the board has received the results of the criminal records checks.

(C) The board reserves the right to thoroughly investigate all materials submitted as part of an application. The board may contact individuals, agencies, or organizations for recommendations or other information about applicants as the board deems necessary. Applicants may be requested to appear before the board or a representative thereof as part of the application process.

(D) If an applicant fails to complete the application process within six months of application filing, the board may notify the applicant in writing of its intention to consider the application abandoned. If no response to that notice is received by the board within thirty days, the board shall consider the application as abandoned and no further processing shall be undertaken with respect to that application.

(E) If the application process extends for a period longer than six months, the board may require updated information as it deems necessary.

(F) No application being investigated under section 4774.13 of the Revised Code, may be withdrawn without approval of the board.
