

Ohio Administrative Code

Rule 4783-4-02 Exceptions to requiring verification of certification by the behavior analyst certification board; reciprocity.

Effective: December 31, 2023

Pursuant to division (C) of section 4783.04 of the Revised Code and upon application by an applied behavior analyst licensed or certified by the licensing department of another state, a territory, or the District of Columbia, who wishes to practice in this state, the state board of psychology shall issue a certificate to practice applied behavior analysis without requiring written verification from the "Behavior Analyst Certification Board" provided he/she also:

(A) Demonstrates compliance with the requirements in paragraph (B)(2) of rule 4783-1-01 of the Administrative Code and compliance with paragraph (A)(3) of rule 4783-4-01 of the Administrative Code and pays the required fee.

(B) Makes available to the board primary source verification of active licensure or certification as an applied behavior analyst by the appropriate licensing department of another state, a territory, or the District of Columbia for at least one year preceding the the date of submission of the application and has been actively engaged in the practice of applied behavior analysis for at least one of the five years immediately preceding the submission of the application.
