

Ohio Administrative Code Rule 4901:1-2-07 Types of meetings.

Effective: December 4, 2015

(A) A regularly scheduled meeting is one in which members of the committee are informed of the meeting at least five days prior to the start of the meeting.

(B) A special meeting is one in which members are informed less than five days but more than twenty-four hours prior to the start of the meeting.

(C) An emergency meeting is one in which members are informed less than twenty-four hours prior to the start of the meeting.
