

Ohio Administrative Code Rule 4901:1-24-08 Protective orders.

Effective: July 15, 2024

(A) An applicant may file financial statements, financial arrangements, forecasted financial statements, credit reports, and credit ratings under seal. If these exhibits are filed under seal, they will be afforded protective treatment for a period of six years from the date of the certificate for which the information is being provided.

(B) An applicant may file a motion for a protective order covering information not covered under paragraph (A) of this rule. If the motion is filed in conformance with rule 4901:1-24-07 of the Administrative Code, it will be automatically approved on the thirty-first day after the date of filing and the information will be afforded protective treatment for a period of six years from the date of the certificate for which the information is being provided, unless the commission or an attorney examiner appointed by the commission rules otherwise.

(C) At the expiration of the six-year period provided for in paragraphs (A) and (B) of this rule, the information will be automatically released into the open record.

(D) An applicant wishing to extend a protective order beyond the six-year time period provided for in paragraphs (A) and (B) of this rule must comply with paragraph (F) of rule 4901-1-24 of the Administrative Code.
