

Ohio Administrative Code Rule 6121-1-11 Definitions.

Effective: August 26, 2004

(A) "Day" means calendar day.

(B) "Meeting" means any prearranged discussion of the public business of this authority by a majority of its members.

(C) "Oral notification" means notification given orally either in person or by telephone, directly to the person for whom such notification is intended, or by leaving an oral message for such person at the address, or if by telephone at the telephone number, of such person as shown on the records kept by the secretary-treasurer under this chapter.

(D) "Post" means to post in an area accessible to the public during the usual business hours in the general reception area at the offices of the authority and at other locations which the executive director determines are being used by state agencies for such purpose. A notice identifying the locations at which notifications will be posted pursuant to this chapter shall be published by the secretary-treasurer within ten calendar days after the adoption of this chapter.

(E) "Published" means published once in a newspaper having a general circulation in Franklin county, as defined in section 7.12 of the Revised Code. If at the time of any such publication there is no such newspaper of general circulation, then such publication shall be in a newspaper then determined by the secretary-treasurer to have the largest circulation in Franklin county.

(F) "Regular meeting" means a meeting which occurs as a regular meeting in accordance with the by-laws of the authority.

(G) "Special meeting" means a meeting which is neither a regular meeting nor an adjournment of a regular meeting to another time or day.

(H) "Written notification" means notification in writing mailed, transmitted electronically or
