

Ohio Administrative Code Rule 6121-1-13 Notice of special meetings.

Effective: September 21, 2009

(A) Except in the case of a special meeting referred to in paragraph (D) of rule 6121-1-14 of the Administrative Code, the secretary-treasurer shall, no later than twenty-four hours before the time of a special meeting, post a statement of the time, place and purposes of such special meeting, except that if all of the members of the authority are together at one place, an oral call may issue and a special meeting may be convened immediately and without lapse of time after such call.

(B) The statement under this rule and the notification under paragraphs (A), (B), and (C) of rule 6121-1-14 of the Administrative Code shall state such specific or general purpose or purposes then known to the secretary-treasurer to be intended to be considered at such special meeting and may state, as an additional general purpose, that any other business as may properly come before such meeting may be considered and acted upon.
