

Ohio Administrative Code Rule 901:11-4-01 Definitions.

Effective: January 18, 2024

As used in rules 901:11-4-01 to 901:11-4-13 of the Administrative Code:

(A) "Conveyance" means the tank portion of a bulk milk transport tank truck or in the case of a can truck, the enclosed portion of the truck used to house and transport the producer can milk.

(B) "Department" means the Ohio department of agriculture.

(C) "Director" means the director of agriculture or an official, employee, or contractor of the department of agriculture designated by the director of agriculture.

(D) "License" or "registration" means a license or registration issued by the director as provided in section 917.09 of the Revised Code.

(E) "Weigher, sampler, or tester" means a person who, in order to determine volume, weight, or composition for the purpose of determining price, weighs, samples or tests, either of the following but does not include testers for drug residue analysis:

(1) Milk at a dairy farm; or

(2) Milk or cream purchased by a dealer from a milk producer or co-operative.
