

Ohio Administrative Code

Rule 901:4-7-09 Removal of a member of the grain marketing program operating committee.

Effective: June 28, 2008

A member of the committee may be removed from the board if any one of the following occurs:

- (A) The member has three consecutive unexcused absences from committee meetings. Unexcused absences are to be defined at the discretion of the committee.

 - (B) The member ceases being a producer as defined by the grain marketing program rules.

 - (C) The member engages in conduct that violates the laws of the state of Ohio, and a quorum present votes to dismiss that member.
