

Ohio Administrative Code

Rule 901:7-2-12 Buyers exempt from licensing.

Effective: February 13, 2023

(A) Any person whose annual purchases of all agricultural commodities does not exceed thirty thousand bushels and does not participate in agricultural commodity handling as defined in division (C) of section 926.01 of the Revised Code is exempt from licensing as an agricultural commodity handler. The director of agriculture may examine any records of any person claiming exemption at any reasonable time to verify exemption compliance.

(B) A producer who sells an agricultural commodity to a person who is exempt from the requirement to license as an agricultural commodity handler as defined in division (C) of section 926.01 of the Revised Code is not eligible to file a claim under section 926.18 of the Revised Code for any loss or damage the producer may sustain from the sale of commodities to persons exempt from licensing.
