

3364-1-12.5 Quorum.

A majority of voting members then in office will constitute a quorum for the conducting of business at any meeting of the UTH board, either in person or electronically, provided, however that this includes at least a majority of the combination of the ex officio voting members and university board of trustees members. If a quorum is present, a majority vote of those members present and voting will be required for approval of actions by the UTH board.
