

Ohio Revised Code

Section 3.30 Failure to give bond of office.

Effective: October 1, 1953

Legislation: House Bill 1 - 100th General Assembly

A person elected or appointed to an office who is required by law to give a bond or security previous to the performance of the duties imposed on him by his office, who refuses or neglects to give such bond or furnish such security within the time and in the manner prescribed by law, and in all respects to qualify himself for the performance of such duties, is deemed to have refused to accept the office to which he was elected or appointed. Such office shall be considered vacant and shall be filled as provided by law.
