

Ohio Revised Code Section 1109.64 Travel services.

Effective: January 1, 1997

Legislation: House Bill 538 - 121st General Assembly

Subject to the limitations and restrictions of Chapters 1101. to 1127. of the Revised Code, a bank shall have the power to do both of the following:

- (A) Operate travel agencies;

 - (B) Engage in the sale of tickets for passage on common carriers, such as airlines, railroads, ships, and buses, to points within and outside the United States.
-