

Ohio Revised Code

Section 1117.04 Relocating a banking office.

Effective: January 1, 1997

Legislation: House Bill 538 - 121st General Assembly

---

A bank proposing to relocate a banking office shall do the following:

(A) If the banking office is to be relocated within the banking office's current service area, the bank shall notify the superintendent of financial institutions and comply with the service area relocation procedures established by the superintendent.

(B) If the banking office is to be relocated outside the banking office's current service area, the bank shall obtain the superintendent's approval for the relocation in accordance with the procedures set forth in section 1117.02 of the Revised Code for establishing a banking office and comply with the banking office closing procedures established by the superintendent.

---