

Ohio Revised Code

Section 1121.17 Executing documents.

Effective: January 1, 1997

Legislation: House Bill 538 - 121st General Assembly

---

(A) Accounts and other documents required by the superintendent of financial institutions may be signed and sworn to or affirmed on behalf of a bank by any officer authorized by the bank to do so.

(B) When the superintendent requires, any officer receiving any communication from the division of financial institutions relative to examination or investigation by the superintendent shall submit the communication to the bank's executive committee or board of directors.

---